

NEVADA DAY AT THE 2026 NAWB FORUM

Tuesday, March 24, 2026
The Cosmopolitan | Las Vegas, Nevada

For the first time, workforce development professionals from across Nevada are invited to experience the NAWB Forum — the nation's premier workforce development conference — right here at home.

Nevada Day brings together national insights and local leadership for a powerful day focused on strengthening workforce partnerships, expanding opportunity, and sharing solutions that can be implemented across the state.

WELCOME ADDRESS — 8:30

Mayor Shelley Berkley
City of Las Vegas

OPENING PLENARY — 8:45 AM

Fireside Chat: Nevada's Workforce Ecosystem in Action

A dynamic conversation featuring leaders from business, government, workforce development, economic development, and community organizations discussing how Nevada built one of the nation's most integrated workforce ecosystems — and how these partnerships can be replicated nationwide.

Moderator: Jaime Cruz

Featured Leaders:

Mary Beth Sewald — Vegas Chamber of Commerce
Danielle Casey — Las Vegas Global Economic Alliance
Chris Sewell — Nevada Department of Employment, Training & Rehabilitation
Milt Stewart — Nevadaworks
Jon Ponder — Hope for Prisoners
Kelvin Watson — The Library District

MAYORS PANEL — 1:00 PM

The Role of Cities in Advancing Workforce Development & Economic Opportunity

Following lunch at 11:45 a.m., municipal leaders discuss how cities can drive workforce innovation and economic mobility.

Mayor Michelle Romero — Henderson
Mayor Pamela Goynes-Brown — North Las Vegas
Mayor Shelley Berkley — Las Vegas
Mayor Joe Hardy — Boulder City

NEVADA DAY RECEPTION — 6:00 PM

Connect with national and local partners at an evening reception celebrating Nevada's leadership in workforce development.

ONE-DAY REGISTRATION: $500*

Includes full access to Nevada Day programming on March 24.

*Pricing exclusively for Nevada residents

Limited availability for Nevada workforce professionals.

Register on NAWB's website

ABOUT NAWB

The National Association of Workforce Boards (NAWB) represents workforce boards and partners nationwide and hosts the country's largest annual gathering of workforce development leaders.