

LEVERAGING APPRENTICESHIPS

TO BUILD THE HEALTHCARE TALENT PIPELINE

A practical roadmap for building a stronger healthcare workforce.

Healthcare employers are navigating persistent staffing shortages and rising demand for skilled professionals across the care economy. Registered Apprenticeship programs offer a proven earn-while-you-learn strategy to recruit, develop and retain talent through structured, high-quality career pathways.

FEATURED INSIGHT

Learn how North Carolina's Business Committee for Education (NCBCE) and NC Career Launch are advancing apprenticeship initiatives.

PARTICIPANTS WILL LEARN HOW TO:

01

Understand the business value and workforce impact of Registered Apprenticeships.

04

Engage local Workforce Development Boards and key workforce partners.

02

Separate apprenticeship myths from reality and explore successful training models.

05

Identify funding opportunities, including resources supporting the care economy.

03

Develop and register a Registered Apprenticeship program.

06

Access toolkits, technical assistance and next-step resources to launch or expand an initiative.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Workforce development professionals • Healthcare employers • Education & training providers
• Community-based organizations • Economic development partners

IWL Apprenticeships are supported by the Employment Training Administration of the U.S. Department of Labor as part of an ABA2 grant award totaling $8 million with 0% financed from non-governmental sources.

BUILD A SUSTAINABLE HEALTHCARE TALENT PIPELINE

REGISTER:

<https://nawb.users.membersuite.com/events/df869f52-0078-c3e4-0d8f-0b49f2ab9eee/details>